

TRICKY?

SORCERY

If you've always wanted power over others, check www.spellsandmagic.com. This site will tell you how to cast spells, but it does warn that what goes around, comes around – so if you send out evil spells, one day that evil will come knocking at your door. I kinda wish I hadn't hit Slim Jules with the shrinking dick spell now!

DRIVER SPEC

HEM PATEL, 21

HUBA HABA, RASTITI OLEUM?
"What the fuck are you on about?"

I'M CASTING A VOODOO SPELL TO MAKE YOU AGREE WITH ME?

"You twatt!"

NO I'M NOT!
"Yes you are!"

OH ARSE!

Hem Patel has spent year's modding his evil looking Clio, but the cursed Renault hasn't made it easy for him. Exorcism didn't work, so he fucked it up good and proper, and now it looks magic.

The occult and black magic have a real underground following, only surfacing into our everyday lives in news reports of sickening ritual or cult killings. Many people say they don't believe in magic, sorcery or voodoo, but put face to face with a giant figure dressed in a black cloak who is threatening to put a curse on your entire family, and I'll bet they won't risk pissing him off too much.

We at Fast Car Towers never discount anything out of the ordinary. Jesus, we even employed that Faliraki Tony fella, and there's no way he could be described as normal! So when Hem Patel told us of the mysterious disasters he'd had with the latest incarnation of his Clio project, we were more than ready to look to the supernatural. Hell, I even asked Patel if he had ever pissed off some weirdo with a wand. He claims he is innocent of any such doings, so what could be going on?

Even with demons and dark forces fighting against him, and when everything that could have gone wrong with the build did go wrong, Hem stuck with his ride. Shit, he didn't turn to tarot cards or exorcism, the mad fucker simply modded his way from the damned right through to the damn!
